Narberth Volunteers Plan Fall Carnival

Active Members and Mulieres to be Joint Sponsors of Affair

DIRECTORS NOMINATED

A carnival is to be held in Narberth some time in October under the joint sponsorship of the Active Members Club of the Narberth Fire Company and the Mulieres, women's auxiliary.

All local organizations will be asked to participate. Proceeds will benefit the fire company.

A carnival committee, named at the August meeting of the company's directors in Elm Hall, comprises Harry Hollar, president of the Active Members; Fire Chief Charles V. Noel, Mrs. Eberhardt, head of the Mulieres, and Albert Nulty.

Nine directors for the company were nominated to be elected at the annual meeting September 29. They are Tristan B. duMarais, company president; William S. Howard, Albert Nulty, Harry Hollar, Assistant Chief John A. Miller, Thomas W. Merkle, George B. Suplee, James F. Purse and W. D. R. Evans. Additional nominations may be made by members and the directorate also includes Fire Chief Noel, ex-officio, an appointee of Borough Council and an appointee of the Mulieres.

Following the presentation of its by-laws by George B. Knapp, Jr., Thomas W. Casey and Meryl Clark, the Active Members Club was accepted by the board as a regular unit of the volunter company.

Harry A. Ferreira, Civic Leader, Dies

Services will be held at two o'clock this Friday afternoon at 1820 Chestnut street for Harry A. Ferreira, beloved Bala-Cynwyd resident who died suddenly at two o'clock Wednesday morning at his home, 405 Pembroke road. Interment will be made in West Laurel Hill Cemetery. He was 64, and had suffered a stroke.

Mr. Ferreira was active in club, political and school affairs in Lower Merion. He was for many years judge of election in the Cynwyd election district. He was the donor of the Ferreira cup each year at Lower Merion High School.

Seek Mail Delivery

Fifty residents of Penn Valley, living in the part bounded by Montgomery, Bryn Mawr and Woodbine avenues, have petitioned the U. S. Postoffice Department for mail delivery.

Delivery service, now in effect in a built-up section of Penn Valley through the Narberth postoffice, is a project of the Penn Valley Association.

H. O. West, chairman, and J. G. Allen, secretary of the association, are the committee furthering the movement.

Bala Inn Partners Go Separate Ways After Norristown Court Case

Proprietors John C. Doyle and Robert Hartsook of the Bala Inn, Bala avenue at City Line, dissolved their partnership last Saturday, after a legal tangle before Judge Harold G. Knight at Norristown.

Hartsook will continue operating the Bala Inn, while Doyle, taking up residence at 25 City Line, has become a salesman of beer and soft drinks for Wood Beverage Co., Rosemont.

At the hearing, Doyle was represented by Attorneys Fox and McTighe, and Hartsook by Attorney A. Archer Cross.

Borough Council Purchases Additional Playground Land

A tract of ground including a house and barn at 102 Conway avenue will be purchased from William S. Howard and Augusta B. Howard for $6825 by Narberth Borough Council.

The purchase, authorized at a special meeting of council Tuesday night, is to provide additional land for the borough playground.

It is planned to convert the house into dressing quarters. A committee to arrange for the use of the new property consists of Clarence Kaeber, chairman; Robert F. Wood and Roland Fleer.

Council also authorized a temporary loan of $10,000 until present taxes are collected.

Will Sing on Radio

PEGGY MacGUFFIN

of Merion, formerly of Wynnewood, who will sing over WIP Mondays at 1.45 P. M. under the radio name "Peggy Madison." Miss MacGuffin is a member of the Bala-Cynwyd Community Choral and Junior Woman's Club and of the Narberth Players.

Bandit Trio Identified by Narberth Victim

Walter G. Case Says Three Were Youths Who Robbed Him of $75.00

HEARING AUGUST 11TH

Walter G. Case, proprietor of a gasoline service station at Woodbine and Montgomery avenues, Narberth, on Tuesday identified three youths as the trio who held up and robbed him of $75 last Friday night.

Wednesday the men, Peter Bernardo and Joseph Dobb, alias Duke, of West Manayunk, and Joseph Clarke, of Morrisville, N. J., were held without bail by Magistrate Francis Bobenrieth, Conshohocken, for a further hearing August 11.

According to Lieutenant Walter Brown, of the Lower Merion Police, Bernardo has admitted this holdup and other gas station robberies and has implicated his companions.

The three were captured following another holdup Sunday night near Conshohocken. Conshohocken police trailed the alleged bandits and captured them after a two-mile chase.

C. P. Cook at Rotary Tells of Local History

Chester P. Cook, Merion, who has one of the most interesting collections of local maps and historical data, Tuesday told the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotarians how Edward Jones came into title of most of the section which is now Bala, Cynwyd, Merion and Narberth.

Mr. Cook said that Edward Jones landed at Upland, now Chester, on the ship Welcome in 1682, acquired large tracts of land in what is now Lower Merion Township and Narberth and settled about where the General Wayne Inn now stands.

Daniel Ely was made a new member of the club. Guests included several members of the Ardmore Rotary Club.

Township Police Marksmen Again Win Pistol Tourney

For the fourth time in five matches, Lower Merion's No. 1 police revolver team won from seventeen other law-enforcement organizations when they captured the Inter-State Pistol League meet at Brookline, Haverford Township, by a two-point margin from Philadelphia Bank Guards. The score: Lower Merion, 1338; Bank Guards, 1336. Haverford's host team No. 1 placed fourth with 1332 points.

Captain Percy Coffin, of Lower Merion, also won third place in individual honors with 276 out of a possible 300. His team members were Denson, 264; Comiskey, 263; Utz, 261; Hathaway, 274.

Baseball Bat Injures Boy

Joseph Heald, 13, was painfully injured last Thursday evening when a baseball bat swung by George Humphries, member of the Narberth baseball team, slipped from his hands and caromed off the grandsand screen and struck the boy. The youth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benton Heald, Hampden avenue, Narberth, suffered a cut right eye and bruised nose.

Still Stills Seized In Springhouse, Federal Officers After Offenders

Quite useful things are found in the township dump—chairs and beds and dishes, for instance. Scavengers have been known to furnish little "mansions" from their finds. But rarely does anyone drive a perfectly good blue Buick sedan onto the dump and leave it there. To say nothing of a few gallons of moonshine, many gallons of wine and two stills.

However, when District Superintendent Ed Dougherty of the Federal Alcohol Tax Unit, accompanied by several officers from the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board, ambled onto the Lower Merion Township dump Tuesday afternoon, he found not only a blue Buick sedan, standing by the springhouse there, but in the springhouse he discovered a first-class factory—a booze factory.

On the cold floor of the springhouse were two stills—a fifteen-gallon still and a 150-gallon still—both still. They were set up ready for use, but were not in operation at the time of their siezure.

Alongside the stills were two fifty-gallon barrels of mash in the process of fermentation. Nineteen other similar barrels, some half-full, some empty, were also found.

Two gallons of moonshine liquor, one five-gallon barrel and several twenty-five-gallon barrels of wine completed the seizure by the Federal and State officers.

Just who gave the tip-off to the Alcohol Tax Unit, officials would not say.

School Calendar

Narberth's public school children will go to school 187 days next season.

Registration: Kindergarten, September 3; new grade pupils, September 4; hours, 1 to 4 P. M.; vaccination and birthdate papers necessary.

School opens September 8.

Holidays: Thanksgiving, November 26-27; Christmas, December 24-January 1; Washington's Birthday, February 22; Easter, March 26-31; Memorial Day, May 31. And two days when teachers attend Schoolmen's Institute.

School closes June 18.

The summer school will close this Saturday.

School Board Gives Mariani Bus Contract

Saving: $748. Auditors' Report Goes to Ardmore paper; Saving: $4.80

BUY $362.12 EQUIPMENT

Considerable savings in money were effected Narberth taxpayers at a special meeting of the School Board Monday evening. It was held primarily to award contracts for bus transportation and for publication of the annual auditors' report.

Mariani's G. R. Wood Transportation Company, Mapleshade, N. J., won the contract—subject to conditions not as yet accepted by the company—to transport children to the Lower Merion Senior and Junior High Schools at Ardmore. Instead of last year's three buses, which were furnished by Greyhound (formerly Montgomery Bus, now Aronimink), Mariani is expected to transport the children in two buses, making return trips for those who miss the first bus going and returning.

The saving: $4 a day for the 187 days of the school year. (The contract is for $16 a day.)

Principal W. J. Drennen announced borough schools will be open a day longer than last year, which means one day's more appropriation from the State.

A further saving was accomplished by awarding the printing of the annual auditors' report to an Ardmore paper for $60, which had underbid OUR TOWN'S quotation of $64.80. Circulation figures were asked of the representatives of the two papers attending the meeting. The Narberth circulation of the Ardmore paper was given as less than half that of OUR TOWN. A letter was read from the publisher of OUR TOWN asking for consideration of the local paper.

The saving: $4.80.

Bills totaling $2011.02 were ordered paid and purchases of school equipment were authorized as follows:

Sixteen desks and chairs for the art department, from Snellenburg, $305.12.

Triplicate mirror for home economics (dressmaking) students, from Joseph L. Shoemaker, $57.

Death of Mother Summons Burgess Hall to Pittsburgh

Burgess John R. Hall, of Narberth, was called to his mother's bedside last Saturday in Pittsburgh, reaching her home a few hours before her death on Sunday night.

His mother, Mrs. Mary Hall Fahy, who was 85, had been ill for several months. Funeral services were held Wednesday.

Narberth Victor in Two Close Week-End Games

Gladwyne Falls 1-0, While Malvern Bows 5-4, to Boroughites

GAZELLA IN HIT SPREE

By TKC

Narberth journeyed to Gladwyne's renovated field Saturday and jolted George Nelling's fine young team, 1-0. Then, when Malvern visited here Sunday, the Davismen came out on top again, 5-4. Both games were hard-fought battles, with Sunday's the most exciting. George Gazella was superb at bat. In nine times at the plate he walloped out seven singles and a double.

In Saturday's game the all-important tally came in the first inning when a former teammate of Gladwyn, "Mickey" Gavin, first up for Narberth, drove a double to the outfield. Gazella, third hitter for Narberth, crashed out his first single, scoring Gavin with the run which presently declared Narberth victors, 1-0. The game from then on was a nip-and-tuck affair, with Pitcher Al Herrmann holding Gladwyne to three hits for the day.

Sunday's game with Malvern was a rip-roaring affair, with the winner absolutely in doubt until the end of the ninth. Narberth welcomed Malvern in the first inning when Gavin reached first on Shortstop Hamilton's error and Gazella drove him over the plate with a hard single. Malvern

In the notice of corporation the club lists as its aims "the preservation, protection and propagation of game and fish, the encouragement of fishing, hunting and marksmanship, the development of good sportsmanship in field and stream and the social enjoyment of its members."

Officers of the Rod and Gun Club are John A. Miller, president; Dr. Curtis Whitticar, C. H. A. Chain and Charles Hansell, vice-presidents; George A. Wynnewood Delivery Deferred

Clinton B. Uttley, superintendent of postoffice service at Washington, says Wynnewood's population is 1573, or 927 less than the required 2500 necessary for mail delivery. John V. Calhoun, chairman of Wynnewood Civic Association's mail service committee, declares Wynnewood's residents number more than 3000.

Recently more than 600 Wynnewood citizens petitioned the postoffice department for mail delivery. It is now likely that a census will be taken of the community to prove the association's population contention.

Bureau Wanted

The Narberth Volunteer Emergency Relief would like a donation of a bureau or chest of drawers. If any of the residents of the vicinity have such an article, please call Narberth 3883.

Baby Parade Princess

Doris Toughill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Toughill, S. Narberth avenue, Merion, has been chosen as the princess for the baby parade at Cape May, N. J., this Friday.

Various Sports Occupy Rangers Who Clean-Up At Casco Carnival

(Editor's Note: This is the fifth in a series of letters from the boys at Ranger Lodge, Casco, Maine.)

The past week was one of the most eventful of the summer at Ranger Lodge. Many activities filled the program and with the turning of the month, many of our parents paid us visits.

Monday and Tuesday were taken up with competitions with Camp Zakelo. Monday morning the swimming team journeyed to the opponents' camp and lost, after a good fight in two of the three classes. In the peanut group, Bob Paine did nobly, but the Rangers were forced to bow 20-15. In the junior division, however, Chick Dawson won every race he entered and John Bartle furnished another victory to put the visitors on top. Despite valiant work by Ralph Moss, Bill Grugan, Cliff Roberts, and George Paine, the seniors were outsplashed by the Long Lakers. In the afternoon, tennis and riflery made up the program. Bob Warwick turned out to be the hero of the senior tennis match when he came from behind to win the match needed for a tie. Joe Clausen and Bob Rowley teamed up to bring home the other victory. Meanwhile the juniors had no trouble in disposing of the enemy on their home courts. Bub Nold and Len Jones were the standout performers.

Tuesday morning both senior and junior basketball teams coasted to easy triumphs on Zakelo's fine indoor floor. Jim Fitzpatrick was high man for the senior aggregation, aided nobly by Bob Collins, Steve Schoff

Library Circulation Grows: Book Groups Inaugurated

Circulation records at the Narberth Community Library continue to show a steady gain. 4434 books and magazines were distributed during the month of July, an increase of about 180 books compared with the circulation in July, 1935, and about 130 more than in June of this year. The gain for the first seven months of 1936 is about 1300.

The new registration system is well established, and has been the means of correcting many long standing errors in the registration file. Re-registrations and new borrowers have totaled 1100 in a little more than two months since the system has been in effect.

The Library makes a point of turning friendly criticism and suggestions of borrowers to good use. The most recent change at the suggestion of a friend of the library has removed the Rental Collection from the awkward corner by the window to the five top rows of two sections immediately in back of the circulation desk. This was the previous location of the mystery stories, which are now moved along two sections.

Speaking of mystery stories, a borrower asked if western stories might not also be put in a separate place. This, however, was found to be impractical because of the small number of westerns and because of the lack of a convenient place for such a special collection. As a compromise, a list of all the western stories in the library arranged alphabetically by author has been placed at the desk for the convenience of those interested especially in this type of fiction.

Other special lists may be had at the desk for the asking—"Vocations in fiction," "Historical fiction," "Books for young people. Revised, 1936," "Home reading" (junior and senior high school list), "Reading for pleasure," "The choice of a hobby," and "666" (Boy Scout reading list), as well as the library's own monthly list 'The owl suggests."

Around Our Town

People who write about the children of today are fond of saying that they have a much healthier outlook toward life than their immediate predecessors, the "post-war" generation. Not only have they a much saner and more ambitious attitude toward their school work, but their leisure is also being spent in more profitable ways. They are fast becoming participants rather than observers in a wide number of sports and other leisure activities.

This trend is particularly visible today in Narberth; in the playground, the public library, and in the extra-curricular activities in the schools. At the playground, under the capable direction of Paul King and his assistants, all day long children learn an amazing number of games. While the generation who knew the playground as a corner lot, played baseball all summer long—and played it well, if the stars it produced are any indication—this generation adds to the repertoire tennis in its various forms—court, deck and even paddle tennis—and other new inventions in sport world. Children are shown short cuts to skill and are organized into teams in such a way as to make competition a thing that is understood in a good spirit of sportsmanship and eagerly entered into. There is also a renewed interest in arts and crafts, as the children make and paint plaster casts, string necklaces and do other things which are interesitng as well as constructive.

Our playground is helping the "Children"—from six to sixty—gain health, skill and good sportsmanship and instructors teach them to be resourceful and maintain an ample supply of means of amusement on which they can draw for the rest of their lives.

Just as in the playground Narberth's children are building strong bodies, polls of popular children's books in the library show that their minds are also receiving attention. The schools have done much to inculcate in them a genuine interest in better literature. Although stories of mystery and adventure still lead as favorite, those read are of a better type in general. Many people today, both young and old, the librarians tell us, are reading more non-fiction than those of the past decade, and the children are particularly interested in travel.

We wish every success to these youngsters who, we feel are going to get somewhere, and to the people who are responsible for giving them an early start in the right direction.

Reduction in Rates for Long Distance Phone Calls

The seventh rate reduction in ten years affecting inter-state long distance calls was filed today by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company with the Federal Communications Commission to take effect September 1, 1936. During ten years the station-to-station rate from New York to San Francisco has come down from $16.50 to $7.50 and the New York-Chicago rate from $4.65 to $2.50.

In Pennsylvania, savings totaling more than $600,000 will result to telephone users from this latest rate.

The new rates filed by the A. T. and T. Company reduce the cost of long distance calls for distances of more than 240 miles.

"Henry VIII," "Hearts Divided" for Narberth

Narberth's comedy-drama this week-end is "The Princess Comes Across," starring Fred MacMurray, Carole Lombard and Alison Skipworth.

Spencer Tracy and Sylvia Sydney are coming Monday and Tuesday in the cinema-dramatic hit of the year, "Fury."

For Wednesday, Narberth's award night, the borough playhouse will feature George M. Cohan's celebrated "Song and Dance Man."

That notable historic dramatic comedy, "The Private Life of Henry VIII," is coming back Thursday, with Charles Laughton and the many wives.

Marion Davies, Dick Powell and Charles Ruggles will end the week in "Hearts Divided."

"Private Number," Quintuplets, "Elmer Elephant" This Week-End at Egyptian

Robert Taylor and Loretta Young star in "Private Number" at the Egyptian this Friday and Saturday. Nearly stealing the show from this competent pair of lovers is Basil Rathbone as the butler. Patsy Kelly has an amusing role. Taylor in this film justifies the popularity which he won in "Magnificent Obsession." Also on the week-end program are the latest Dionne Quintuplet news reels and a Disney Symphony, "Elmer Elephant."

Recalled for curiosity's sake as well as its inherent interest, "Dancing Lady" will play Monday and Tuesday. It starred Fred Astaire, Joan Crawford and Clark Gable.

For Wednesday and (Bank Night) Thursday, Showman Conway has booked the Mary Pickford production, "One Rainy Afternoon." This gay comedy in the Continental manner brings Francis Lederer's charm, Ida Lupino's beauty and the delightful comedy of Hugh Herbert and Robert Young.

The end of next week, Grace Moore, Franchot Tone and Jack Pearl will star in "The King Steps Out."

$300,000 Building Operation Planned at Wynnewood Site

A six-and-one-half-acre tract on Wynnewood road, Wynnewood, has been sold for a residential development.

Construction of nineteen single houses planned, of early American design, will cost about $300,000. Other building now planned will bring the total to $440,000 in the township.

The ground for the major project, purchased by Richard A. Kerns, Inc., from Carl Dallstrom, was held at $25,000.

Building permits have been sought for the construction of two houses in Merion.

One is to be located on the north side of Cherry bend, 57 feet east of Brookway, while the other will be located on the east side of Brookway, 179 feet south of Montgomery avenue.

They are to be of stone and frame construction, with garage attached, and will cost $12,000 each.

A permit is also being sought for the construction of a single house, costing $16,000, on the northwest corner of Greenhill lane and City Line avenue in the Green Hill Farms section of Lower Merion Township.

and Bob Brendlinger. Ross Collins, Bob Roberts and Dick Custer starred for the junior club. Likewise the afternoon resulted in a double win for the Rangers as both baseball teams mowed down the opposition, the older boys winning 9-7 and the younger lads almost quadrupling their opponents' score, 23-6. Don Smith turned in a fine job of twirling for the former club, while Bub Nold held the visiting youngsters in check as Charlie Dykes, Howard McConnell and Harry Middleton slashed out many safeties.

The first deep sea fishing party of the year left Thursday as twenty lads went to Portland from whence they journeyed seaward in Captain Allen's boat. Lew Reisner, Dave Allburger and Bill Miller shared the pool for the largest fish.

Saturday was Casco Day as the local village put on its annual carnival. Beano games and baseball pitching were the main attractions on the midway, until the eagle-eyed boys from Ranger Lodge exhausted the supply of prizes. Water sports featured the program in the morning and the Lodgers featured the water sports. Hank Ludlow, Cliff Roberts, Bill Grugan, Winston Connor and Don Rheasa combined to win five first places in the canoeing events and Chick Dawson, himself, took three blue ribbons in the swimming events. A colorful parade was the main attraction of the afternoon, as gaily decorated floats from the surrounding camps combined with those of the villagers to produce the summer's most picturesque happening.

The weekly inspection race was won by the largest cabin in camp, the Barracks. Headed by Tom Griffith and Bob Matheys, such industrious lads as Harley Anders, Dan Karcher, Jack Townsend and Bub Herbert lost but one point during the entire week.

Scrubbed faces and well groomed locks were very much in evidence on Friday morning when the photographer arrived from Portland to take pictures of the camp and individual cabin groups. Mr. Springer was also on hand with his movie camera and snapped individuals pursuing the various activities of the day.

Many parents arrived in camp on Saturday and Sunday, including Dr. and Mrs. Longaker, Mr. and Mrs. Clausen, Mr. and Mrs. Narrigan, Mr. and Mrs. DeBurlo, Mr. and Mrs. Boardman and Mrs. Jones. Along with the rest of the camp, they were privileged to hear on Sunday night a very unusual talk on Byrd's Anarctic expedition by Amory Waite, chief electrical engineer and radio operator. Mr. Waite illustrated his talk with slides and many amusing sidelights.

Ted Shawn Men, Jose Iturbi, Josef Wissow Dell Features

The next to the last week of Robin Hood Dell's most successful summer concert season brings to the music public one of the country's greatest dancing units, Ted Shawn and his Men Dancers, who will appear with the men of the Philadelphia Orchestra at the Dell in Fairmount Park on Monday and Tuesday nights in an elaborate program.

Saul Caston, associate conductor of the Philadelphia Orchestra, will conduct during the ballet.

Another exceptional highlight of the week will be the offering on Thursday night by Jose Iturbi, Spanish pianist and composer and principal conductor of the Dell, of a double piano concerto.

Mr. Iturbi is likewise conducting on Sunday night and again on Friday night, when the second half of the program will be entirely Wagnerian, including that great composer's "Prolude and Love Death" of "Tristan and Isolde," and Elizabeth's first Aria from "Tannhauser," with a prominent soloist.

On Saturday night, with Mr. Iturbi again conducting the orchestra's offerings will include Beethoven's Concerto No. 4 in G major, with Josef Wissow, the pianist, as soloist. 100,000 Mile Service Demonstration Here

Hansell Bros. to Begin Supplying Lubrication for Economy Operating

On August 10, 11 and 12 Hansell Brothers on Montgomery avenue, Narberth, will inaugurate an auto lubrication service tested recently by The Atlantic Refining Company near Toms River, N. J., where it was discovered that ordinary stock cars, if properly lubricated, can be driven 100,000 miles with almost no wear. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday a special representative of the refining company will be at the station to demonstrate the 100,000-mile service and inaugurate it locally.

Engineers declare the Toms River tests have shown the way to reduce motor upkeep costs in the United States at least $50,000,000 a year, according to Charles Hansell, one of the owners of the local service station.

"The results achieved at Toms River, N. J.," Mr. Hansell said, "are due to three factors: (1) Lubrication in accordance with manufacturers' specifications; (2) Regularity of lubrication, and (3) Use of a motor oil that has been film strengthened to stand 15,000 pounds pressure per square inch. This film strengthened oil—three times stronger than average—is a result of more than four years of research and is widely recognized as a development of major importance in the automotive field. It may have an influence on future motor design and on the use of new materials in motor construction."

The lubrication system which will be inaugurated Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday was tested in six low-priced stock cars driven 100,000 miles each—equal to ten years of average motoring.

During the 100,000-mile run gasoline consumption averaged 20.9 miles per gallon and oil consumption 565 miles to the quart. The test cars used Atlantic White Flash gasoline and Atlantic motor oil and received regular Atlantic lubrication.

On these three days cars brought to Hansell Brothers will be lubricated under supervision of the Atlantic representative here in order to inaugurate the 100,000-mile Toms River system.

At Hedgerow Theatre

Hedgerow Theatre at Moylan will present this week:

This Friday and next Thursday, Riggs' "The Lonesome West"; this Saturday, Shaw's "Misalliance"; Monday, Anderson's "Winesburg, Ohio"; Tuesday, O'Casey's "The Plough and the Stars"; Wednesday, "An American Tragedy," Dreiser-Piscator; next Friday, Glaspell's "Inheritors"; next Saturday, Shaw's "Getting Married."

"Winesburg, Ohio," was given a sparkling performance by the Hedgerow players Tuesday. The play was adapted by Sherwood Anderson from his book and made of its scattered small-town episodes a strong dramatic unit. That it was uproariously funny and at the same time poignantly and realistically human, was to a great extent attributable to the sterling acting of the players and the expert direction of Jasper Deeter.

SPECIAL LUBRICATION DEMONSTRATION

AN ATLANTIC LUBRICATION EXPERT, direct from Atlantic Headquarters, will be at my station all day the first three days of next week—August 10, 11 and 12. He will demonstrate the approved method of lubricating your particular make and model of automobile, precisely as its manufacturer recommends. And, of course, he'll use the same lubricants which took the famous Toms River Test Cars 100,000 miles apiece, WITHOUT lubricated engine-part repairs, and WITHOUT a single rear axle or transmission failure.

You are cordially invited to bring in your automobile for a demonstration. You'll be amazed at its smoother, more economical performance. All cars lubricated for $1.

jumped into the lead in the second, 2-1, on Umbach's, Kilpatrick's and Pitcher Jefferies' singles, only to be tied at 2-all in Narberth's half when Pitcher Byrne reached first on another shortstop miscue and George Gazella again drove the run over with a single. Narberth added one in the fifth and another in the seventh, when consistent Gazella doubled to score Pitcher Byrne, who reached first when he was hit by a pitched ball. Malvern, up in the ninth, tied the score at 4-4 when Byrne weakened a little. He walked Crandle, Umbach singled and Catcher McKinley hit safely, scoring Crandle. Manager Davis removed Byrne at this point and substituted Smiling Bill Reynolds. Bill unfortunately hit Jefferies, and when Spaziana singled to left the score stood 4-4. But in Narberth's half of the ninth session, after Reynolds flied to left, Gavin singled, Tanny Ralston walked, Gazella singled and, to end a hard-fought game, "Mickey" Gavin scampered across home plate on Walker's fielder's choice play, Narberth, 5; Malvern, 4. Pitcher Jefferies was heard to say as he left the field, "I always lose a tough one at Narberth."

Narberth's Tuesday night game is with the Philadelphia Police and should prove interesting, as dealings with police are usually rather exciting, while Thursday night Riverton, N. J., visits the borough.
